

Form 149

Request to Post Information to Schools

The Limestone District School Board does not permit solicitation or advertising of products, businesses, or corporations in the schools or on Board property. The LDSB does not distribute third- party flyers via students home to parents/guardians. In a move toward reducing both the fiscal and environmental impact of distributing paper information to staff and students, the LDSB will share information in electronic format only.

Contact Information:

Address: _____
City: _____ Province: _____ Postal Code: _____
Phone: _____ Fax: _____ Cell: _____
Email: _____ Website: _____

To request approval for the LDSB to post your information electronically so that it is accessible by LDSB staff and schools, please fill out the form below and e-mail it with your flyer, or brochure, as attachments (Adobe Acrobat pdf only) to request@limestone.on.ca.

Description of Event/Activity:

In general, the Board's preferred method of sharing information on behalf of not-for-profit community groups is by posting details on the Board's internal e-mail system where information is available to all staff, and can be reviewed and acted upon at the individual's discretion.

Applicants must review Administrative Procedure 149 to ensure they meet the criteria for consideration.

I have read AP 149 and my organization meets the stated criteria.

If you have additional questions, please contact LDSB Communications at ldsbcotts@limestone.on.ca
